Hi, I am interested in the Buy to let market and I am not sure what is the criteria for purchasing as before I understood you could do self cert, what do they require now? and are there any lenders out there?

Hi Livvy,

thanks for your question. There are lenders who will accept self cert and lenders who also have no minimum income at all.

If you call us on 01424 205 373 we can go through your criteria and assess which lenders will be most suitable to your circumstances.

Kind Regards

John
